

Orbit Learn Class Activity

Split the class into equal groups and assign each group a simulation. These can be either the ones prebuilt in the app or custom ones made using the export/import feature.

Have each group reenact the simulation (Note a large empty space will be needed, like outside). Visit each group and ask each member to explain why they are moving the way they are (Aka looking for gravity and connections like if they are a sun, planet, or moon).